LICENSING AGREEMENT

The Wisconsin Program Integration System (INTEGRATOR) is a software system for editing and integrating (merging) program variants. The INTEGRATOR consists of a specification for an editor that can be created with the Synthesizer Generator editor-generating system, packages for building and manipulating program dependence graphs, assorted utility routines and packages, and Makefiles for coordinating compilation and loading.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System on behalf of the Computer Sciences Department of the University of Wisconsin−Madison (LICENSOR) grants to LICENSEE a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-assignable, personal license to use the proprietary INTEGRATOR, subject to the conditions set forth below.

1. Software: After execution of this agreement, and after receipt of the license fee, LICENSOR will furnish to LICENSEE source code for the INTEGRATOR (written in the C, Lex, Yacc, the Synthesizer Specification Language (SSL), Make, and C-shell languages) and technical support documentation. Machine readable material will be furnished on one 9-track, 1600 bpi magnetic tape, written in the tar format of Berkeley Unix, mailed to the address provided in paragraph 16 below.

2.1 Restricted License: Use of the INTEGRATOR, or any part thereof, or any software derived in whole or in part therefrom, is authorized for the limited purpose of not-for-profit research by LICENSEE only. Use for any other purpose (including use in conjunction with research for profit) is expressly excluded without prior written agreement of LICENSOR.

2.2 LICENSEE is authorized to use the INTEGRATOR on all computers at the separate geographical locations itemized in paragraph 15 below (the SITES) and at no other locations.

2.3 LICENSEE may not copy the INTEGRATOR, or any part thereof in any form, except for backup or archiving purposes, and for the purpose of distribution to its computers at the given SITES. LICENSEE agrees not to remove or destroy any proprietary markings or confidential legends placed upon or contained within the INTEGRATOR and any related materials.

2.4 LICENSEE may not sell, rent, sublicense, or otherwise distribute in any manner whatsoever the INTEGRATOR, or any part thereof, or any software derived in whole or in part therefrom, without the prior written approval of LICENSOR.

3. License Fee: The distribution fee is $250.00 for each SITE itemized in paragraph 15 below.

4 Title: This agreement grants LICENSEE no title or right of ownership in the INTEGRATOR, and no property right in any copyrighted materials delivered hereunder.

5. Non-Disclosure: LICENSEE agrees to receive and keep the INTEGRATOR in confidence and not to disclose them to any third party without the express written consent of LICENSOR, and to protect them with at least the same degree of care as LICENSEE uses to protect its own proprietary or confidential information.

6. Proper Credit and Recognition: Appropriate credit consists of including in any documentation and publications about research that involves the INTEGRATOR the following statement: ‘‘This study made use of the Wisconsin Program Integration System under license from the University of Wisconsin−Madison. We acknowledge Thomas Reps and Susan Horwitz for their role in its development.’’

7. Disclaimer of Warranty: LICENSOR provides the INTEGRATOR on an "as is" basis, and does not warrant its validity or performance. LICENSOR reserves the right to update, modify, or discontinue this software at any time. LICENSOR shall have no obligation to supply any such updates or modifications or any other form of support to LICENSEE. All warranties, including without limitation, any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are hereby excluded.

8. Lack of Maintenance Services: LICENSEE understands and agrees that LICENSOR (or any other person or entity with proprietary rights in the software licensed hereunder) is under no obligation to provide either maintenance services, update services, notices of latent defects, or correction of defects for the INTEGRATOR.

9. Limitation of Liability, Indemnification: Even if advised of the possibility of such damages, under no circumstance shall LICENSOR (or any other person or entity with proprietary rights in the software licensed hereunder) be liable to LICENSEE or any third party for direct, indirect, or consequential damages of any character regardless of type of action, including, without limitation, loss of profits, loss of use, loss of good will, or computer failure or malfunction. LICENSEE agrees to indemnify LICENSOR (and any other person or entity with proprietary rights in the software licensed hereunder) for any and all liability it may incur to third parties resulting from LICENSEE'S use of the INTEGRATOR.

10. Termination: LICENSOR may terminate this license upon 30 days notice if the INTEGRATOR becomes subject to any claim of infringement of a patent, copyright, or trade secret, or if in LICENSOR's opinion such a claim is likely to occur. Either party may terminate this agreement at any time upon notice to the other party if the other party breaches a material provision of this Agreement. Upon any termination of this Agreement, LICENSEE shall immediately cease using the INTEGRATOR, return to LICENSOR all copies of the INTEGRATOR, otherwise purge all backup and archive sites of all copies of the INTEGRATOR, and certify in writing to LICENSOR that it has destroyed all copies. LICENSEE's obligations of confidentiality shall survive termination of this Agreement.

11. Notices: All notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be sent via certified mail to the address set forth below or such other address as each party may specify in writing to the other. LICENSEE shall also send a copy of any notice of default or breach to Administrative Legal Services, 361 Bascom Hall, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706 (Attn.: Kathleen S. Irwin). Notices shall be effective upon the third business day after mailing.

12. Wisconsin Law: This Agreement is deemed to be made under, and shall be governed by, the laws of the State of Wisconsin. Both parties consent to jurisdiction in the State of Wisconsin.

13. Entire Agreement: This Agreement represents the complete and exclusive statement of the agreements between the parties relating to the licensing of the INTEGRATOR, and supercedes all prior agreements and representations between them relating to such licensing. This Agreement may not be modified except with the written approval of an authorized representative of LICENSOR.

14. Other Proprietary Interests: This license is made by LICENSOR pursuant to arrangements with Thomas Reps and Susan Horwitz, developers and/or holders of proprietary rights in the software being licensed.

15. Definition of SITES: The separate geographical locations referred to as SITES are listed below:
